

CRAWFORD SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND GOVERNMENT

Ethics and Integrity in Parliament: Emerging Perspectives

Monday 30 November 2009

9.30am - 5.00pm

Parliament House, Canberra

Inquiries - Rachel McGrath-Kerr 6125 3113
RSVP by email: rachel.mcgrath-kerr@anu.edu.au

How well does the Commonwealth Parliament regulate its members' official conduct? Are there mechanisms which might improve Parliament's capacity to regulate its own ethics and integrity?

You are invited to a free public conference on 'Ethics and Integrity in Parliament: Emerging Perspectives' sponsored by Parliamentary Studies Centre, Crawford School of Economics and Government, ANU.

Speakers include:

Dr Rosemary Laing, Clerk-designate, The Senate

Bernard Wright, Clerk-designate, House of Representatives

Senator George Brandis SC, shadow Attorney-General

Melissa Parke, MHR

Former Senator Andrew Murray

Prof Tom Campbell, ANU

Ian McPhee, Commonwealth Auditor-General

Prof Brian Costar, Swinburne University

Jack Waterford, The Canberra Times

Prof Mark Evans, U Canberra

Dr Stanley Bach, Washington

Prof Elizabeth McLeay, Victoria University, Wellington, New Zealand

Dr Zeger van der Wall, University Amsterdam

Prof Gerard Carney, Bond University

Stephen Skehill, Ethics Adviser, ACT Legislative Assembly

Dr David Solomon, Qld Integrity Commissioner

Prof Rodney Smith, U Sydney

PUBLIC CONFERENCE