

Minority government:

perspectives on the impact on the House of Representatives

Thursday 11 August 2011 | 9.30am-1.00pm | Committee Room 2R3 | Parliament House

9.30 Professor John Uhr Director, Parliamentary Studies Centre Professor, Policy and Governance Program, Crawford School, ANU	Introduction
9.35 The Speaker Mr Harry Jenkins MP	Welcome and introduction to the 'new' House
9.50 The Clerk of the House Mr Bernard Wright	What's new about the House?
10.20 Mr Russell Broadbent MP Deputy Chair of the House Procedure Committee	Representatives in the House
10.40 Morning tea
11.00 Assoc. Professor Anne Twomey Sydney Law School The University of Sydney	Looking in on the House
11.30 The Clerk of the Senate Dr Rosemary Laing	The view from the Senate
11.50 Q and A	Professor John Uhr, Chair
12.10 Light lunch
1.00 Close

Department of the House of Representatives

Department of the Senate

Parliamentary Studies Centre, Australian National University